

iPhone and Co.

More bookings with your hotel app!

Benefit from iPhone sales of over 50 million worldwide:

From EUR 99 you can open up new communications and sales channels with your own custom-made hotel app.

You communicate...

- the Unique Selling Points (USPs) of your hotel
such as hotel and room descriptions, promotions, special features, hotel pictures, map of the area incl. points of interest and contact details. You can offer your guests additional services such as a travel guide or weather forecast option.
- directly with your guests
via an integrated reviewing tool. To help you optimise your sales on online portals you can resolve any problems with guests onsite. On request we can distribute your guest reviews to our over 20,000 tourism partners.
- with brand ambassadors and your satisfied guests show your hotel app to friends, relatives and acquaintances. Via the "tell-a-friend" function, recommendations are passed on directly, awareness of your brand is increased and you can enjoy an improvement in bookings.

You sell...

- attractive special deals
and strengthen your additional business with F&B, early-booker incentives and cooperation offers. Via the iPhone's integrated Push Notification Service you can reach guests directly and skip the communication costs! Your offer is confirmed with one click.
- additional nights
and avoid paying commission via this direct booking method. You gain new customers through your presence in Apple and Co.'s app stores. Via targeted search terms. In addition, you also have the possibility to appear in other tourism apps.
- lucrative advertising space
in your hotel app. You present the advertising message of your cooperation partners e.g. in the fields of culture, transfers, sightseeing, shopping, performances and events, and generate additional revenue for your hotel.

I am happy to answer any questions you may have.

I look forward to hearing from you.
