

G|I|A|T|A Extranet Hotel Guide

Function

The Extranet Hotel Guide (EHG) offers travel office staff and travel professionals over 800 catalogues from more than 180 tour operators with over 189,000 travel offers. Use the multiple search options such as catalogue, full text, hotel names, locations or booking code searches. The EHG additionally offers the possibility to easily send offers by email or the classic option of printing onto paper. It is also possible to look through the catalogue in PDF format and additionally display over 800 virtual catalogue pages (even Flip-Cats). Zoom in on images and present your customers with panoramic pictures, videos and climate data, as well as country maps. Furthermore, it is possible to easily order further catalogues right from the Infox.

Optional

Through integration of an IBE, the EHG can be smoothly enhanced into a bookable catalogue. There is no additional charge for the integration of a pre-existing IBE. Travel agency staff are then able to book package holidays with 3 clicks.

Areas of application

- travel agencies, over the counter or in call centres

Advantages

- reduces need time and cost-intensive search for travel offers
- included no bookable offers through IBEs - replacement of almost your whole catalogue wall
- usual, intermittent end-of-season problems with the specimen copy are consequently solved.

Requirement

- DSL Internet access with a flat-rate recommend

GIATA compiles, develops and distributes the digital and text data for almost all the German tour operators – more than 180 have been entrusting their data to GIATA for over a decade.
